

Carton Recycling in Your Community

As you strive to increase recycling, food and beverage carton recycling can help contribute.

Local websites are a key place residents go for recycling information.

Resources to Help

Looking to add food and beverage cartons? The Carton Council can help you get started. Cartons already accepted? Check out the Carton Council resources to help promote carton recycling to your residents.

Community Toolkit

Get help effectively spreading the word about carton recycling. The toolkit contains content for websites, social media, marketing ideas and more.
